Café CHURCH

Away and at home ...

Clair and Jerry were asked by the bishop to help the folks at St Albans in Whitney Pier, Sydney to get a Café Church started. After some discussion with the wardens and Licensed lay Ministers there they drove to Sydney and led their first service on May 19. There was a great turn out, including some parishioners from Church of the Resurrection. It looks like it will become a regular thing at St Albans.

The a cappella group, Polaris, joined us for worship on May 19. As Peter Grant said, "Totally awesome singers, and the church acoustics are perfectly amazing for what these gentlemen do!"

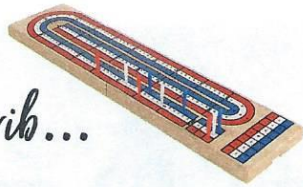

Left & Below: Little David (Brandon) meets ferocious Goliath (Catherin) in an enactment of the story of David and Goliath at Café Church led by Lyda on June 23rd. Jerry and Jackie narrate.

Crib...

The Two Coves Café crib championship crown changed hands (or heads) recently from Greg to Claire.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

On June 15 the Outreach mission group sponsored a Father's Day Pulled Pork Lunch in the parish hall.
