St. Mark's Church, Mill Cove

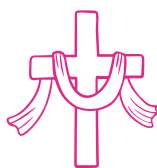

Greetings once again neighbours!

It is a pleasure to once again write to you as your current Priest in Charge. My love for your parish continues to grow as I get to know more of you and spend more time in conversation with you. As my relationship with you continues to grow I am more convinced that there is immense possibility and promise in your communities. With housing development continuing to grow and community events continuing to thrive, I am sure that there is room for the church to be an important and vital part of the community.

My formal appointment as your Priest in Charge is set to end on August 31st. As I consider that date I admittedly have some mixed feelings. On the one hand I would love to continue to deepen my relationship with all of you and the community as a whole. On the other hand, I realize that it is perhaps time for me to step back and focus on my own parish and family. There is always work to do and it has proven to be a great balancing act over the last year to feel like I am accomplishing what needs to be done. I take comfort in knowing that I am not far from the parish boundaries and I will no doubt be seeing many of you on a regular basis.

I pray that during these summer months you will take time to appreciate how fortunate we are to live in such a beautiful spot of the world. Both the scenery and people are to be celebrated and make living and serving here truly special.

In God's Peace,
Archdeacon Brianna Andrews
